

On Shabbat add the words in brackets.

In love have You given us, O Lord our God, [this Sabbath day, and] this Day of Remembrance, a day for [recalling in love] the sounding of the Shofar, a holy convocation, commemorating the Exodus from Egypt.

Our God and God of our ancestors, we recall and invoke the remembrance of our ancestors, the piety of their prayers for Messianic deliverance, the glory of Jerusalem, Your holy city, and the destiny of the entire household of Israel. As we seek Your love and mercy, we pray for deliverance and for life, for happiness and for peace, on this Day of Remembrance.

Remember us, O Lord; bless us with all that is good. Recall Your promise of merciful redemption; spare us, have compassion upon us, and graciously save us. To You we lift our eyes in hope; for You, our Sovereign, are a gracious and merciful God.

Our God and God of our ancestors, establish Your glorious sovereignty over all the world and Your glorious majesty over all the earth. Show all who dwell on earth the splendor of Your power.

Then every creature will know that You created it; every living thing will recognize that You fashioned it; and everything that breathes will declare: The Lord, God of Israel, is the Sovereign, whose dominion extends over all creation.

Our God and God of our ancestors, [may our Sabbath rest be acceptable to You;] may Your Mitzvot lead us to holiness; and may we be among those who devote themselves to Your Torah. May we find contentment in Your blessings, and joy in Your sustaining power.

[Help us to enjoy, in love and favor, the heritage of Your holy Sabbath. May Your people Israel, who hallow Your name, find rest on this day.]

Purify our hearts to serve You in truth, for You are the God of truth; Your word is truth, and endures forever.

Praised are You, O Lord, Sovereign over all the earth, who hallows [the Sabbath,] Israel, and this Day of Remembrance.
